

LIVE

Off The Ball

19:00-22:00

Podcasts Videos Shows News Sport Business Search

Advertisement

HOME / PODCASTS / NEWSTALK BREAKFAST HIGHLIGHTS
/ 200,000 COWS TO BE CULLED IN ORDER TO MEET CLIMATE TARGETS

200,000 cows to be culled in order to meet climate targets

LISTEN TO THIS EPISODE

LISTEN

NEWSTALK BREAKFAST

SUBSCRIBE TO PODCAST

SHARE THIS ARTICLE

08.25 30 MAY 2023

Internal documents reveal that a €200m budget is needed to cull 65,000 cows every year for three years to meet climate goals.

Pat McCormack, President of the Irish Creamery Milk Suppliers Association joined Ciara Kelly on the show this morning.

READ MORE ABOUT

NEWSTALK BREAKFAST HIGHLIGHTS

Related Episodes

50%

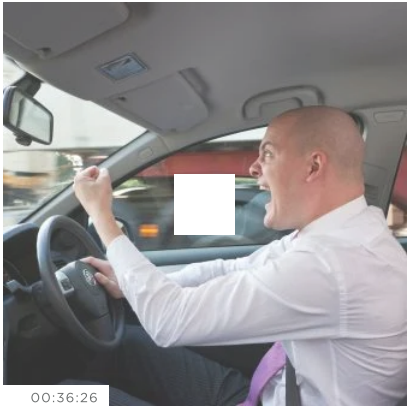

The Football Show: First-ever Manchester derby FA Cup final |...
OTB FOOTBALL

Rugby Daily | London Irish latest, Jones Wallabies bombshell, Haoua...
OTB RUGBY

60%

'I have had my fair share of road rage' - Two thirds of motorists...
LUNCHTIME LIVE HIGHLIGHTS

Hear from Padraic Horkan ahead of Bloom
THE PAT KENNY SHOW HIGHLIGHTS

70%

Advertisement

Related

HSE should expand home birth service - Holly Cairns

Giant missing ice cream cone returned to owners

Phoenix Park to get free bus service under new plan

80%

Advertisement

90%

DOWNLOAD THE NEWSTALK APP

PARTNER SITES | Go Breaks | Go Dating

© 2023 Newstalk, Bauer Media Audio Ireland LP, Reg #LP3374

Developed by Square1

100%