An Illinois bill preventing library book bans has passed the Senate and is headed to Gov. J.B. Pritzker (D-IL), who has said he will sign it.

While many parents are fighting against sexually explicit books being available to minors in their school libraries, Illinois is set to become the first state to move in the opposite direction and mandate that children be given unrestricted access to grooming material in libraries.

This new bill \(https://www.ilga.gov/legislation/billstatus.asp?DocNum=2789&GAID=17&GA=103&DocTypeID=HB&LegID=147915&SessionID=112\) seeks to protect libraries “against attempts to ban, remove, or otherwise restrict access to books of other materials.”

HB2789 \(https://www.ilga.gov/legislation/billstatus.asp?DocNum=2789&GAID=17&GA=103&DocTypeID=HB&LegID=147915&SessionID=112\) “adopt[s] the American Library Association’s (ALA) Library Bill of Rights that indicated materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.”

The ALA’s Library Bill of Rights mandates that library materials “should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation,” or “because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.”

This Bill of Rights also states that a “person’s right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.”

Addressing the issue of allowing minors access to any material they wish, including that which is sexually explicit, the ALA has stated that they support “equal and equitable access to all library resources and services by users of all ages.”

“Equitable access to all library resources and services should not be abridged based on chronological age, apparent maturity, educational level, literacy skills, legal status, or through restrictive scheduling and use policies,” the ALA said.

Should a library in Illinois fail to accept the new policies of the new bill, it will become ineligible for state-funded grants.

“We feel we have to protect their bill of rights at this particular point in time because of the attack that has been made on libraries across the nation,” said Sen. Laura Murphy (D-IL), the Senate sponsor of the bill.

Illinois Secretary of State and State Librarian Alexi Giannoulias initiated the bill and praised it saying, “This landmark legislation is a triumph for our democracy, a win for First Amendment rights, and, most importantly, a great victory for future generations to come.”

“This bill protects our freedom of speech and equally important, our freedom to think critically,” added Giannoulias.

Republican lawmakers largely opposed this bill, with some criticizing it as an overreach of government power.

Recently, parents have been speaking out against their schools and libraries adding books to their collections that introduce sexual themes and activities to young children. Some of these books promote homosexuality and transgenderism, while others go to extremes and have pornographic material, describing sexual acts in great detail, sometimes with accompanying imagery.

For some reason, the Democrat party will not rest until all minors have unrestricted access to pornographic content in their libraries. Meanwhile, states like Florida and Texas have passed bills that are intended to restrict access to books that discuss race, gender identity, and sexually explicit materials.

If the bill is signed into law by Gov. Pritzker, it would take effect Jan 1, 2024.

Be advised, the Everglades is a wide slow moving river, not a swamp. The big swamp is in Washington. Meanwhile Joe's Bus Line does Illinois. We'll wait. So will the gators.

We need to burn these perverted books as the Nazis did. You know, the perverted Jewish books that the Jews never seem to mention when they cry about Nazi book burnings.

The first large burning came on 6 May 1933. The German Student Union made an organised attack on Magnus Hirschfeld's Institut für Sexualwissenschaft (roughly: Institute of Sex Research). Its library and archives of around 20,000 books and journals were publicly hauled out and burned in the street. Its collection included unique works on intersexuality, homosexuality, and transgender topics. [7][8][9][10] It's assumed that Dora Richter, the first transgender woman known to have undergone sex reassignment surgery (by doctors at the institute), may have been killed during the attack. Apparently pedophilia and child grooming are not against the law so long as they are first sanctioned by the government..

The problem is that NOTHING effective is being done about all this sht. Some moms go to school board meetings then get arrested for bothering the fat pedophiles on the school board. The filth in our country need to be chased out, beat up, executed in some cases, and scared to death.

Behind the scenes A LOT is being done about it. The white hat military Alliance has been clearing out the underground bases (called D.U.M.B.'s) where the kids are imprisoned, tortured for their adrenochrome and then traded or killed - and rescuing them. All this is mostly unknown by the public because it's been carefully concealed. And ignored by the media whose purpose has been to keep us ignorant and asleep.

But hopefully it will be exposed to the world when the E.A.S. / E.B.S. happens. Many people won't be able to handle it. What is done to these children is unimaginable by normal humanity's standards. And it's been going on for thousands of years undetected ! Until now - THE GREAT AWAKENING.
