Joe Biden insists that transgender treatments, the chemicals, the hormones, the surgical mutilations, are just more "health" care.

And his advocacy while in the White House has raised the profile of the industry and the impact on its victims.

But some of the of the worst atrocities just now are coming to light, including the testimony from a whistleblower that patients of a children's gender clinic were "begging to have body parts put back on."

It is Fox News that reported on the comments from a children's gender clinic whistleblower who appeared on a daytime television talk show.

The whistleblower, Jamie Reed, who used to work at the Washington University Transgender Center at St. Louis Children's Hospital, wrote an expose last year calling such treatments "morally and medically appalling."

The report noted Reed, "who is queer and married to a transgender person herself," explained what changed her ideas on the subject.

"A number of things. We started to see patients who were experiencing very significant medical harms being rushed to the emergency room with lacerations requiring stitches. We had patients contact us who were begging to have body parts put back on within months of having surgeries."

She continued, "The thing that kept happening is every time I would raise concerns and ask about the protocols and ask about the guidelines – this is just how the industry works, if a child says they're trans there's no questioning it. We just say, 'Yep, you're trans, what would you like?'"

Multiple studies, in fact, have documented that nearly all of the children who experience gender dysphoria during their early years resolve those conflicts and live ordinary lives as their birth sex – if they are not influenced by those promoting the extremism.

Reed worked with children at that clinic.

"You're telling me that a 12- or 13-year-old, who can't decide which pajamas to wear, can come in and say, 'I've decided that I want to transition,' and with no more than a couple of hours or two visits – not even a couple of hours, two visits – they say 'Okay, start taking this, start doing this,' which alters their biochemistry in a way that you can't come back from?" show host Dr. Phil wondered.

Reed: "Correct."

The ideology has boomed under Biden's presidency, during which he has insisted it's "health care," must be normalized throughout the federal government and even promoted overseas.

Reed was blunt: "Doctors are acting like they're God when it comes to medically transitioning children."

"I saw a young person who was begging to have their breasts put back on after having surgery, we were encouraged not to make a big deal out of it and definitely not to tell other families. I couldn't continue to be silent on it."

Many prominent figures now are seeking investigations into trans clinics after a flood of heart-wrenching stories from those who adopted the agenda, but now are "detransitioning." Some of those even have taken those who "treated" them to court for damages.

The Washington University clinic already is under investigation by Missouri Attorney General Andrew Bailey.

The next step is the lawsuits. This will be interesting to watch. Will the free market shut down transgender surgeries? Only time will tell.

The people who are doing this to children and any human being are simply pure evil sick creatures, that includes the surgeon and the nurse and the therapist and anyone who helped them torture and mutilate a human being .

This isn't about what "Transgenderism or individualism." It is about the agenda that Obie set in motion to destroy America and it is being done by those in the government that are part of the Devil's minions.

Ephesian 6:10-13

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand

I think a lot of the gender confusion is caused by child abuse. That needs way more attention. We also know child abuse is a big cause of drug abuse. And that medical problem is a crime in America.

Psych care has always been a horror story. Electroshock, lobotomy, drugging people into a stupor. The brutal truth is that head shrinkers are slightly less reputable and scientific than an African witchdoctor.

I pity these kids who fall into their hands, channelled there by an utterly evil, Satanic government that seems to worship depravity and misery.

Nobody's asking these nut jobs why they want to be someone else in the first place. Pure brainwashing. 20 years ago it was a rare mental disorder, now it's what parachute pants were in the 80s. It's "cool and hip and everybody wants it". Was pretty easy to take off the pants in comparison. Same deal with the tattoos. Might look good on young skin, but guess what kiddies.....

Maybe we should pass a law that says, if a parent approves their child to undergo "transition" surgery, and then their child, at ANY point in the future, regrets "transitioning" and wants to "transition" back, then the parents have to be medicallyh mutilated in the same way they permitted their child to be mutilated or go to jail for the rest of their lives for child abuse.

I'm willing to bet parents would stop this nonsense and all this "transition" lunacy would go away REAL FAST

The parents that approve of this barbaric act should be charged with maiming and attempted murder. These people TRULY hate their children.

1. obiden has no idea what he thinks about "his" trans agenda.
2. every professional involved knows they are dealing with a mental disorder and rather than treat the disorder, they are taking advantage of the patient by indulging their delusions.
3. this is how the left uses "diversity" to divide.

Pure, unadulterated evil can only explained chopping off someone's genitalia even an adults! If none of the doctors wh are insane & demonically controlled would refuse to do the operations, they would have to cut their own genitalia off, and this would come to a screeching halt. To to it to a child is unforgivable.

No kind of "transition" meds or surgeries should be allowed until a person has gone through puberty. A person does not know who they truly are until after that time in their life. I speak from experience. Besides that, these "transitions" do not truly change the sex of the person.

It's like explaining to the child king that once you say off with their heads you cannot say, okay, back on with their heads. I hope that any doctor sick enough to do this would have a little decency and tell them, IT IS IRREVERSIBLE before playing Dr. Frankenstein. These doctors are as sick as their patients.
